USS Zumwalt (DDG-1000)

The 21st century destroyer USS Zumwalt was christened on April 12, 2014. Named after Admiral Elmo Zumwalt, himself a destroyer-man who served in WWII and Vietnam, was a rising star and the youngest ever to be appointed Chief of Naval Operations. The Zumwalt class is distinguished by its advanced powerplant, knife-like bow, and Tumblehome profile all designed to work in consort to improve its stealth and survivability.
