MILITARY TRIVIA

It's good to be the Goat! By Guest Military Trivia Editor Chris Szarek

The Goat refers to the last-ranking cadet to graduate. The Firsties donate to the "Goat Fund" (typically a dollar each), which is presented to the Goat on stage during graduation. The Goat usually receives the loudest applause from the class.

Some notable Goats include: Civil War hero in the Union Army, George Armstrong Custer, Class of 1861; Virginian and Confederate officer George Pickett, Class of 1846; Lt. Powhatan Henry Clarke, Class of 1884 who received the Medal of Honor in 1886. Source: <http://armylive.dodlive.mil>
