Seattle Standdown Item Drive!

From November 2nd- 24th, The Veterans Resource Center - VetCorps Navigators and ASEdCC have teamed up to hold an item drive to support veterans who are homeless or at risk for homelessness. Look for the red, white and blue collection boxes on the second floor of Lynnwood Hall and at Brier 252. Items needed include clothing, comfort and hygiene items. Please help us help our brother and sister Vets during tough times!

Frozen meat and Non-perishable food for Veterans and their families at your VRC!

Through the generosity of our friends at Fallen Brothers Seattle, we still have plenty of non-perishable food and frozen meat available at the Veterans Resource Center while supplies last.

Counselor's Corner

By Teresa Lin, Veterans Support Specialist

Thanksgiving is a time to be thankful for what you have. Even if the holiday season is a time of stress for you, or if life is a little rough right now, it can be helpful to find at least one thing you are grateful for. The more positive thoughts you can hold on to, the less negative thoughts will consume you.
