General Douglas MacArthur, US Army
General MacArthur, who rose to Five-Star General, served in WWI, was appointed Supreme Commander of Allied Powers in the Pacific during WWII, and the Commander of United Nations Forces during the Korean War. His 52-year military career came to a conclusion on 19 APR 51, and he returned to a hero's homecoming and tickertape parade in New York City on 22 APR 51. In his farewell address to Congress, he proclaimed the now immortal phrase, "Old soldiers never die; they just fade away." Source: smithsonian.org
